Celebrating the African American experience, people, and their influence on America!

African American Almanac 400 Years of Black Excellence, 2nd Edition
Lean'tin Bracks, Ph.D.

African Americans helped build the United States. Their centuries-spanning contributions, deeds, and influence are interwoven into the fabric of the country. This information-packed tome provides insights on the impact and inspiration African Americans have had on our society. Presented in a fascinating mix of biographies, historical facts, and enlightening essays on significant legislation and movements, this almanac covers African American literature, art, and music; the civil rights movement; religion within the black community; science and medicine; and politics, education, business, the military, sports, theater, film, and television. This important reference connects history to the issues currently facing the African American community, while honoring the lives and contributions of 800 influential figures!

Lean'tin Bracks, Ph.D., is a retired professor of African American literature and a retired chair of the Department of Arts and Languages, discipline coordinator of English, and coordinator of African American Studies at Fisk University. Dr. Bracks continues to conduct research in the areas of African American literature, literature of the Diaspora, and African American women's literature. She is the author of Writings on Black Women of the Diaspora and the co-editor of Black Women of the Harlem Renaissance Era; she is a regular contributor to scholarly publications and academic journals. She resides in Nashville, Tennessee.

Take an eerie road trip through the United States with this chilling collection of ghost stories!

American Ghost Stories True Tales from All 50 States

Michael A. Kozlowski

From séances to shiny graveyards, take a ghostly journey across the United States. Visit the highways and byways of the supernatural across the country and in each state in the union. You'll tour possessed houses, unearthly burial sites, forbidding farms, sinister forests, creepy school bathrooms, and all manner of places haunted by spectral visitors. This unique tour includes ghosts, poltergeists, residual hauntings, curses, witches, prisons, bridges, and mental institutions of an America plagued with spirits, phantoms, and many more paranormal oddities. This spine-tingling tome puts you in the middle of the eerie action. We suggest you don't read it while you are home alone and the lights begin to flicker!

Michael A. Kozlowski has written a range of books, including a short horror and suspense story collection, Some Days Suck, Some Days Suck Worse; the psychological suspense novella Above the Clouds; and his post-apocalyptic John Angel horror novels, Angel of Death and Fallen Angel. Mike is a member of the Horror Writer's Association, and he lives in a suburb of Detroit, Michigan, with three spoiled dogs.

Take a historic, folkloric, supernatural tour with this hair-raising book on werewolves!

Werewolf Stories Shape-Shifters, Lycanthropes, and Man-Beasts

Nick Redfern and Brad Steiger

From today's lycanthropic creatures found in pop culture movies such as Dracula, Twilight and An American Werewolf in London to the earliest mentions in folklore of the shape-shifting legend, you'll take an eye-opening tour through the ages of all things werewolf. It includes a full moon of topics, such as hirsute mass-murderer Albert Fish; serial killer Fritz Haarmann; Romulus and Remus, the legendary founders of Rome; numerous tales of human and lupine mixtures; and shapeshifters of all shapes and sizes. This fascinating tome provides 140,000 years of blood-pounding evidence of strange and obsessional behavior. It is a true homage to the creature

Nick Redfern is the author of numerous books on the paranormal and unexplained mysteries, including Visible Ink Press's The Monster Book, Monsters of the Deep, The Bigfoot Book, and The Alien Book. He has appeared on more than 70 TV shows, including the Travel Channel's In Search of Monsters; the History Channel's Ancient Aliens, and UFO Hunters; and the National Geographic Channel's Paranatural. Originally from the United Kingdom, Nick lives on the fringes of Dallas, Texas.

Brad Steiger devoted his life to exploring and examining unusual, hidden, secret, and otherwise strange occurrences. He authored more than 200 titles with over 17 million copies in print, including Real Monsters, Gruesome Critters, and Beasts from the Darkside. He is survived by two sons, three daughters, and ten grandchildren, who miss him greatly.

Thirty-five stories of financial, romantic, and intimate betrayals!

Family, Friends and Neighbors Stories of Murder and Betrayal

Richard Estep

Intimacy and trust go hand-in-hand, but what happens when that trust is misplaced? What happens when insurance payouts become too enticing? Or when desperation and poverty become too much? Or when resentment over a childhood trauma overwhelms? The chilling stories of brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, companions and confidants motivated by money, social status, and revenge and those who mistakenly trusted them are collected in this fright-filled book. You'll read the stories, investigate the facts, learn the motives behind the killers who murder the people nearest and dearest to them, including murdering to escape a marriage, dire desperation turned lethal, a violent veer away from reality, and other less comprehensible motivations.

Richard Estep is the author of more than twenty books, including Visible Ink Press' Serial Killers: The Minds, Methods, and Mayhem of History's Most Notorious Murderers; The Serial Killer Next Door: The Double Lives of Notorious Murderers; and Grifters, Frauds, and Crooks: True Stories of American Corruption. He appears regularly on TV shows such as Haunted Hospitals. He has had a lifelong fascination for true crime and ghosts. British by birth, Richard now makes his home in Colorado a few miles north of Denver, where he serves as a paramedic and lives with his wife and a menagerie of adopted animals.
