Navigating differences and bridging divisions!

Thinking Ethically A Handbook for Making Moral Choices

Scott Gelfand, Ph.D., J.D.

Shared morals are key to a functioning society—and important for all of our relationships. But what happens if society no longer shares the same ethical views or beliefs? Exploring a variety of moral issues through engaging, real-life examples—including promise-keeping, lying, adultery, favoring our friends and loved ones, harming innocent people for the good of the majority, the obligation to give to charity, and other ethical quandaries, Thinking Ethically: A Handbook for Making Moral Choices doesn't tell you what to think or do; it tells you how and why people make decisions in their lives even when those decisions might appear flawed. Using common—as well as hot-button—issues, it explores different points of view to illustrate the processes behind decisions. While conclusions may differ, this thought-provoking guide shows that all rational people share the same moral foundations of honesty, kindness, promise-keeping, and a commitment to not harming others—and it recognizes that our shared values can help heal other divisions. The hopeful message here is that there are ways of overcoming our differences even in today's troubled political and social climates!

Scott Gelfand, Ph.D., J.D., is a certified philosophical counselor and professor in the Department of Philosophy at Oklahoma State University, where he has taught a variety of undergraduate courses, including Ethical Theory, Philosophy and Culture, and Introduction to Philosophy. He received his Ph.D. in Philosophy from the University of Maryland and his J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center. His academic publications focus on a variety of issues in ethics, including theoretical ethics, biomedical ethics, and research ethics. He's devoted the last decade of his career to trying to better understand moral and political division in the United States as well as ways to heal or alleviate this division, leading to his first book for a general audience, Thinking Ethically: A Handbook for Making Moral Choices.

Ghostly Encounters Terrifyingly True Hauntings

Richard Estep

Step into a world where the line between the living and the dead is paper-thin in this bone-chilling collection of ghost stories! From cursed houses where restless spirits whisper in the dark to shadowy apparitions lurking in the corners of forgotten places, Ghostly Encounters: Terrifyingly True Hauntings delves into eerie and unexplained tales that still baffle, intrigue, and terrify us to this day. Encounter malevolent poltergeists who wreak havoc on unsuspecting families, ghostly figures bound by tragic pasts, and haunted locations steeped in mystery and fear. Explore the legends behind cursed objects, spectral warnings, and the unrelenting presence of those who refuse to leave the mortal world behind.

Richard Estep is the author of more than thirty books, including Visible Ink Press' Dark Spirits: Monsters, Demons, and Devils; Serial Killers: The Minds, Methods, and Mayhem of History's Most Notorious Murderers; and Grifters, Frauds, and Crooks: True Stories of American Corruption. Additionally, he's written numerous paranormal nonfiction titles, including The Horrors of Fox Hollow Farm: Unraveling the History & Hauntings of a Serial Killer's Home. He is a regular columnist for Haunted Magazine and has also written for the Journal of Emergency Medical Services. Richard appears regularly on the TV shows Haunted Case Files, Haunted Hospitals, Paranormal 911, and Paranormal Night Shift. British by birth, Richard now makes his home a few miles north of Denver, Colorado, where he serves as a paramedic and lives with his wife and a menagerie of adopted animals.

Bigfoot Sightings True Tales from Across America

Jim Willis and Michael A. Kozlowski

Venture deep into the shadowy forests, remote mountain ranges, and isolated wildernesses of the world in search of the truth in this enthralling collection of Bigfoot encounters and evidence. Bigfoot Sightings: True Encounters explores the physical evidence—footprints, hair samples, photos, and videos; the circumstantial evidence—nests and tree structures; the anecdotal evidence—numerous witness stories; and the history and potential explanations for the creature—the giants mentioned in ancient texts, the evolution from Neanderthals, extraterrestrial origins, and shapeshifters; and ancient history, mythology, and folklore. Whether called Bigfoot, Sasquatch, Yeti, or something else, this fascinating book tells of encounters, sightings, and reports across cultures and continents, from Native American legends to modern-day sightings in the Pacific Northwest and beyond. You'll learn about the history and the common threads in the thousands of eyewitness reports—convincing footprints, inexplicable noises, and a primal sense of being watched!

Jim Willis earned his master's degree in theology from Andover Newton Theological School, and he was an ordained minister. He also taught college courses in comparative religion and cross-cultural studies. His background in theology and education led to his writing more than 20 books on history, the apocalypse, and the mysteries of the unknown. His books include Visible Ink Press' Lost Loot, Hidden History, and Lost Civilizations. He passed away in 2024.

Michael A. Kozlowski has written a range of books, including Visible Ink Press' American Ghost Stories, as well as the short horror and suspense story collection Some Days Suck, Some Days Suck Worse; the psychological suspense novella Above the Clouds; the second novel in his John Angel series, Fallen Angel: A Post-Apocalypse Horror Novel; and a travel memoir about his family's adventure moving to and living in Australia. Mike lives in Detroit, Michigan, with his fiancé and a herd of spoiled animals.
